

For release: December 6, 2017

Debbie Wood joins Doshier Board

SOUTHPORT—Elected by Smithville Township voters in November, Debbie Wood was sworn in as a new member of the Doshier Memorial Hospital Board of Trustees on December 4. She fills the unexpired two years of the term of Southport Police Chief Gary Smith who resigned in August.

Also taking the oath of office as trustees were Karen Taylor and Dr. Terry Pieper who ran unopposed. They were elected to full, six-year terms.

Read more about Doshier health and wellness services at Doshier.org.

#

Debbie Wood (center) takes the oath of office as a new trustee on the Doshier Memorial Hospital Board, administered by Caswell Beach Mayor Deborah Ahlers. Holding the Bible is Wood's husband, Kent.

(Editor's note: See additional photo and caption on page two.)

Karen Taylor, Debbie Wood and Dr. Terry Pieper are sworn as Doshier Hospital Board trustees by Caswell Beach Mayor Deborah Ahlers.