Dosher Plans “Virtual” Celebration for 90th Anniversary

SOUTHPORT— Tuesday June 2nd will mark the 90th anniversary of Doshier Memorial Hospital, which opened as Brunswick County Hospital on June 2nd, 1930, and later changed its name in memory of its founding physician Dr. J. Arthur Doshier.

With respect to current restrictions on large gatherings, hospital leaders will commemorate this milestone by holding a 15 minute Facebook Live broadcast from the hospital lobby to share a few brief remarks on Doshier’s past, present, and future with the community, from a safe distance. A short speaker program will be followed by musical performances from Juantana Frink and Grace Heck.

Join the anniversary celebration on June 2nd at 5:00pm by going to:

Doshier is a public, not for profit community hospital and the only independent critical access hospital in North Carolina. Find out more about Doshier at Doshier.org.
