Doshier Announces Latest “Triple E” Recipient

SOUTHPORT—Brittany Vanslyke, MS OTR/L CLT, an Occupational Therapist with Doshier Memorial Hospital Therapy Services, is the most recent recipient of the hospital’s Employees Exceeding Excellence, “Triple E” Award. Brittany has been an Occupational Therapist with Doshier for 8 years and became certified in Lymphedema Management in 2018.

In the Triple E nominations, Brittany was recognized by colleagues as being a patient centered team player, who demonstrates a level of professionalism, communication, and attention to detail which sets her apart. Not only does Brittany strive for the best patient outcomes, but she is also a visionary who welcomes opportunities for professional growth.

Britany, who is originally from upstate New York, graduated from Utica College with a master of science. Brittany lives on Oak Island with her husband and two daughters, where they appreciate their close proximity to the beach and the beautiful weather of coastal Carolina.

Doshier Triple E’s are nominated by their peers on a quarterly basis.
