Hatem and Pope Newest Members of Doshier Foundation Board

The Doshier Memorial Hospital Foundation recently elected Tish Hatem and Claude Pope Jr. as their newest board members.

Hatem has been the co-chair of the Doshier Memorial Hospital Foundation annual gala since 2011. She is active in the business community as Vice President of the nonprofit Downtown Southport, INC. and Chairman of the Southport Planning Board as well as being a nationally published interior designer.

Pope is a Past Member of the Raleigh Parks, Recreation and Greenway Advisory Board, past member of the North Carolina Economic Development Board, and the founding Member of YEO - Young Entrepreneurs' Organization - Raleigh/Durham Chapter. Claude is the former owner of Getitquick.com, an office supply company early to leverage accelerated deliveries made possible through an online platform, and acquired Maritime Market on Bald Head Island from Mitchell Family in 2011.

The Officers were re-elected to the following positions: Mark Bachara, Chair, Adam Powell, Vice Chair, Joyce John, Treasurer, Melody Ryan, Secretary
