Doshier Announces “Triple E” Recipient for second quarter of 2019

Gwennet Johnson, Doshier Memorial Hospital Patient Access Representative

SOUTHPORT— Gwennet Johnson is the latest and a highly deserving recipient of the Doshier Memorial Hospital Employees Exceeding Excellence, “Triple E” Award. Gwennet, a Patient Access Representative in the Patient Service Center, is always ready to help patients as well as new employees. Gwennet is often the first point of contact for patients, helping them through the hospital registration process. She prides herself on being approachable and adding a personal touch to her communication.

Triple E's are nominated by their peers on a quarterly basis and are recognized by the Doshier senior team in a lobby reception. A Bolivia NC native, Gwennet has 3 children and 7 grandchildren. Gwennet has been with Doshier for ten years and is an outstanding member of the Doshier team, who exemplifies the hospital's mission of being, "The friendliest, most patient focused hospital in North Carolina."
