Dosher Volunteers Announce 2020 Scholarship Recipients

SOUTHPORT—The Dosher Volunteers Organization has awarded a total of three (3) scholarships to two area high school graduates and one Dosher staff member who are pursuing studies in the healthcare field. The value of each scholarship is $4,000.

The Jean Fairley Volunteer Scholarship winner is Adrienne Rauccio. Adrienne is a full time employee of Dosher Memorial Hospital, a wife, and a mother of three children. She is committed to her work as a Lead MRI Technologist. Adrienne attended Carteret Community College, earning an Associates Degree in Applied Science, and an MRI Certification at Forsyth Technical Community College. The Jean Fairley grant is awarded to Dosher Hospital employees who are furthering their health care education.

Alexis Brogan, who graduated from South Brunswick High School with a GPA of 4.0, is the second scholarship recipient. Alexis is a member of the National Honor Society, National Technical Honor Society, SALT, HOSA, and the American Red Cross Club, as well as a member of the high school Lacrosse Team. In addition, Alexis volunteers at the nursery of Generations Church. She plans to attend East Carolina University in the fall.

Rylee Elizabeth Cooper, a graduate of West Brunswick High with a GPA of 4.2, is the remaining scholarship recipient. She is a member of the National Honor Society, DECA, SGA, and a member of the high school dance team, which participates in local fundraisers and community service and school spirit events. Rylee volunteered at Novant Hospital, Camp UMC Soup Kitchen, Hurricane Shelter and Boys and Girls Home of North Carolina. Rylee plans to attend the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill.

The Doshier Volunteers Organization is an independent group of women and men formed in 1972, whose goal is to make the hospital experience as pleasant as possible for patients and their families. The Doshier Volunteers have been funding educational grants for health care industry students for many years. The Volunteers are proud to be able to help further the education of these worthy students. Read more about them at www.Doshier.org/Volunteers.
