Dosher Volunteers Award 3 College Scholarships

SOUTHPORT—The Doshier Volunteers Organization has awarded $3,000 scholarships to two area high school graduates and one Doshier staff member who are pursuing studies in the healthcare field.

Angel Johnson graduated from North Brunswick High School, ranking second in her class. She is a member of the National Honor Society and was an ROTC leader and active member of the ROCAME Club where she won several awards on the regional level. She plans to attend Winston Salem State University in the fall.

Elizabeth Millard is a surgical technician at Doshier Hospital, who is known for her diligence, hard work and leadership among the surgical team. Millard is pursuing a nursing degree and currently attends Brunswick Community College.

Oleksandr Malenko graduated from South Brunswick High School, ranking fifth in his class. Malenko is a member of the National Honor Society and volunteers at Novant Medical Center in ICU/PCU and the Emergency Department. He plans to attend East Carolina University this fall.

The Doshier Volunteers Organization is an independent group of women and men formed in 1972, whose goal is to make the hospital experience as pleasant as possible for patients and their families. Read more about them at www.Doshier.org/Volunteers.
