Dosher Volunteers salute outgoing leader, install new officers

SOUTHPORT—At their annual meeting on September 18, Doshier Volunteers thanked outgoing Volunteers President DeVota Vereen for more than 10 years of leadership. She joined the Volunteers in 2003 and remains a member of the organization supporting Doshier Memorial Hospital.

The Volunteers elected the following new officers for 2017-18: Jeri Robinson, president; Ann Hollingsworth, vice president; Donna Jenny, secretary; Lois Galligan, treasurer; and Verda Darrell, chaplain.

The Doshier Volunteers are an independent organization formed in 1972. The group has more than 160 active members volunteering their time in several departments, a gift shop at the hospital, and the Flea Market in downtown Southport.

For more information on joining the Doshier Volunteers, call 910-523-2248 or visit Doshier.org/Volunteers.
