

Contact: James M. Goss
Phone: (910) 457-3900

For release: February 12, 2016

Dosher plans drug drop, doc talks & more

SOUTHPORT—Dosher Memorial Hospital is hosting or participating in several health-related events over the next six weeks:

1. Thursday, February 18, 9 a.m.-1 p.m. - Operation Medicine Cabinet. Drop off unwanted medicines at the main entrance of the hospital, 924 N. Howe St., Southport.
2. Saturday, February 27, 9 a.m.-2 p.m. - Dosher is a sponsor of the Brunswick Beacon Health Expo at Shallotte Middle School, 225 Village Rd., Shallotte.
3. Thursday, March 3, 4-7 p.m. - Dosher is a sponsor of the Southport-Oak Island Chamber Coastal Consumer Showcase at St. James Community Building, 4136 Southport-Supply Rd., Southport. Wound Care Center Director John Stone speaks at 6 p.m. on advances in wound healing.
4. Tuesday, March 8, 6:30-7:30 p.m. - Orthopedic surgeon Dr. Michael Marushack gives a talk on advances in shoulder replacement surgery, 2nd floor conference room at the hospital. Reserve a seat by calling 910-332-3800.
5. Tuesday, March 29, 6:30-8:30 p.m. - For National Nutrition Month, Dosher registered dietitian and nutritionist Vicki Allen speaks on "Weight loss, what works and what doesn't," 2nd floor conference room at the hospital. Program includes a food demonstration. Reserve a seat by calling 910-454-4731.

Several additional physician lectures are planned this spring. Read more about them at www.Dosher.org/calendar.

# #