Dosher recognizes Volunteers for service milestones

SOUTHPORT—Dosher Memorial Hospital recently thanked more than 80 Doshers Volunteers for reaching milestones for hours donated and years of service at the hospital or Thrift Shop.

Those who volunteered the most hours in 2015 were Terri Curson, 646 hours; Ann Hollingsworth, 583; Gerry Blik, 575; Barbara Farley, 569; and Rick Rucker, 560.

Total value of sales at the Thrift Shop, hospital gift shop and donated time by Doshers Volunteers the past year surpassed $794,000.

Volunteers who have donated the most hours all time are Farley, 7,800; Maryann VanMeter, 7,553; Betty Doshers, 5,809; Hollingsworth, 5,655; and Avie Nubel, 5,000.

Meanwhile, the Volunteers have elected Jeri Robinson as vice president, succeeding Blik who moved out of state.

Doshers Volunteers are an independent organization formed in 1972. Read more about them at www.Doshers.org/Volunteers.
