Doshier salutes Volunteers for service to patients, visitors

SOUTHPORT—Doshier Memorial Hospital recognized more than 75 volunteers for yearly or lifetime milestones at an annual luncheon on April 16. The five who volunteered the most hours in 2017 were Ann Hollingsworth, 809 hours, Pat Genovese, 808, Barbara Farley, 737, Terri Curson 502, and Mary Baldwin, 491. Volunteers donated 26,419 hours last year, or the equivalent of 12.7 full-time employees.

Total value of sales at the Flea Market and hospital gift shop, and donated time by Doshier Volunteers in 2017 surpassed $519,000.

At the Volunteer tribute event, Doshier also recognized Curson and Peg Blair for reaching the 4,000-hour mark in volunteer time over the years. Curson's time donated at the hospital now stands at 4,182 hours; Blair's at 4,117.

The Doshier Volunteers is an independent group of women and men formed in 1972. Read more about it at www.Doshier.org/Volunteers.
